Regional Seminar on Media Ethics
September 11-13, 2000
Malaysia

LIST OF SPEAKERS/PARTICIPANTS
REGIONAL SEMINAR ON MEDIA ETHICS IN ASIA
11-13 SEPT. 2000
MALAYSIA

SPEAKERS AND PARTICIPANTS
LIST

Mr. Sayed Kamaluddin
Correspondent
Far Eastern Economic Review
Dhaka, Bangladesh

Ms. Almas Zakiuddin
Managing Editor
The Independent,
Dhaka, Bangladesh

Ms. Reva Khetrapal
Press Council of India
Faridkot House
Copernicus Marg
New Delhi, India

Mr. S. Venkat Narayan
Syndicated Journalist
C-2 2073, Vansant Kunji
New Delhi, India

Mr. Gengo Nakajima
Director and Manager
International Affairs
Nihon Shinbun Kyokai
The Japan Newspaper
Publishers & Editors Assoc.
Nippon Press Center Bldg.
2-2-1 Uchisainaiacho
Chiyuda-ku, Tokyo, Japan

Mr. Bhag Singh
Lawyer
Bhag, Sulaiman & Co.
500-6-19, Wisma Indah, Jalan Run Eazak
50400 Kuala Lumpur
Malaysia

Dr. Indrajit Banerjee
Associate Professor
Universiti Sains Malaysia
11800 Pulau Pinang
Malaysia

Mr. Zainon Ahmad
Editorial Consultant
New Straits Times
The New Straits Times Press (M) Berhad
31, Jalan Riong 59100 Kuala Lumpur
Malaysia

Mr. Azman Ujang
Executive Editor
BERNAMA
Malaysia

Mr. Muhammad Ziauddin
Bureau Chief
Daily Dawn
Zero Point, Islamabad
Pakistan
Dr. Ijaz Shafi Gilani
Chairman
Gallup, Pakistan
H-45, St 52
F-7/4, Islamabad
Pakistan

Ms. Ma. Rosario F. Hofilena
Fellow
Philippine Center for Investigative Journalism
Philippines

Mr. Isagani Yambot
Publisher
The Philippine Daily Inquirer
Philippines

Professor John Merrill
School of Communication Studies
Nanyang Technological University
Singapore

Ms. Teo Yi Ling
Lecturer
Center for Films & Media Studies
Ngee Ann Polytechnic
Singapore

Mr. Manich Sooksomchitra
Senior Editor
The Thai-Rath Daily
Thailand

Dr. Venkat Iyer
School of Public, Economic & Law
University of Ulster at Jordanstown
United Kingdom

Mr. Cyrous Moradi
Programme Manager
Asia-Pacific Institute for Broadcasting
Development
MALAYSIA

Ms. Sandy Smeltzer
Carleton University
CANADA

Ms. Roselina Johari
Group Manager, Publishing
Utusan Melayu (Malaysia) Berhad
Malaysia

Mr. Zainoor Sulaiman
Malaysia

Dr. Faridah Ibrahim
Lecturer
Département of Communication
University Kebangsaan Malaysia

ORGANIZER
The Asian Media Information and Communication Centre
Jurong Point PO Box 360, S'pore 916412
Tel: (65) 792 7570; Fax (65) 7927129
Email: amidbie@singnet.com.sg
http://www.arrk.org.sg

Vijay Menon
Secretary-General

Joe Maria G. Carlos
Head, Seminars & Institutional Devt.
Programme

George Tan
Database Manager

Vigneswary Godinsamy
Executive, SIDP

Ivy Goh
Secretary-SIDP
VENKAT IYER

Dr Venkat Iyer is an international expert on Media Law. Currently, a lecturer at the University of Ulster in Northern Ireland, Dr Iyer has been engaged in researching various aspects of the law concerning free speech for several years now. He is a former Nuffield Press Fellow at Cambridge University, England. Between 1990 and 1995, he was involved on States of Emergency at the Queen's University of Belfast. Dr Iyer is the author of many articles and books, including a study of media laws and regulations in India, published by AMIC in 1993, the second edition of which is due out later this year.
Professor John C. Merrill is currently a professor at the Nanyang Technological University, Singapore. He holds a Ph.D. in Mass Communication from the University of Iowa and has taught at various universities worldwide, mainly in the field of communication and journalism. On a professional level, he has worked as an editor and columnist with various newspapers and publications. He is listed in various publications namely, “Who’s who in the world”, “Directory of American Scholars”, “Dictionary of International Biography” and “International Authors and Writers”. Professor Merrill has also written various books, his latest being “Twilight of Press Freedom: Rise of People’s Journalism” published this year. He has written at least 100 scholarly articles in journals in a dozen countries. Among the many honors Professor Merrill has received are the ‘Distinguished Visiting Professor, American University in Cairo, 1994’, ‘Distinguished Lecturer in Journalism, National Chengchi University and Chinese Culture University, Taiwan, 1994’ and ‘Honor Medal for distinguished service to Journalism, School of Journalism, University of Missouri, 1996’.
ISAGANI YAMBOT

Mr. Isagani Yambot is the publisher of the Philippine Daily Inquirer. He began his career in journalism as a desk person at the pre-martial law Manila Times in 1953. He served as press attache of the Philippine Embassy in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia, in 1981-1982 and the Philippine Embassy in Washington D.C. in 1985-1986. He was appointed publisher of the Philippine Daily Inquirer in February 1993. Mr. Yambot lectured on Technical Writing and News writing at the Development Academy of the Philippines from 1983 to 1985 and lectures occasionally on Editing, News Development Techniques and The Craft of Writing at the Asian Institute of Journalism. He also helped prepare the first Stylebook of the old Manila Times and was the co-author of the Inquirer Stylebook, a manual of style and usage for editors, writers, reporters and students.
GENGO NAKAJIMA

Mr Gengo Nakajima is the Director and Manager, International Affairs of Nihon Shinbun Kyokai (Japanese Newspaper Publishers & Editors Association). He is also the Board Director of the Press Foundation of Asia in Manila. In his current position, Mr Nakajima is involved in planning and conducting various kinds of international exchange programs, including US-Japan Bilateral Journalists Exchange Program, US-Japan Senior Editors Conference (birearly), NSK-CAJ ASEAN Fellowship Program, NSK-JE European Fellowship Program, Bilateral Exchanges between Japan and China, US, Korea, Australia and the former USSR. He was also in charge of the preparations and execution of international conferences such as the General Assembly of IPI (1991, Kyoto). Mr Nakajima was the editor of two books namely, "Futotta Nihon-Jin (Fattened Japanese)" in 1972 and "Ogoreru Nihon-Jin (Arrogant Japanese)" in 1978.
MUHAMMAD ZIAUDDIN

Mr Muhammad Ziauddin is the Chief of Islamabad Bureau of Dawn, an English language daily since 1982. He holds a postgraduate degree in Journalism. Mr Ziauddin was the Resident Editor of the News, Rawalpindi, an English daily in 1994. He was a visiting teacher in the journalism department of Karachi University in 1977, a Commerce Editor of The Muslim, an English daily from 1979 to 1982, and a Reporter at the Pakistan Press International, a News agency from 1967-1972. Mr Ziauddin has also traveled widely on professional assignments.
Ms Almas Zakiuddin is the Managing Editor of The Independent, Dhakka, where she is responsible for strategy and management of the group’s revenue growth, together with special editorial development, including news features, magazines and special reports. She leads a team of marketing and advertising executives, provides supervision to the editorial team in charge of features and magazines and is a member of the Editorial Board. Ms Zakiuddin is also a freelance journalist and has worked on a special assignment CNN International on the visit of US President Bill Clinton to Bangladesh in March 20, 2000. She worked closely with the CNN Delhi Bureau to script and shoot backgrounder on political and economic situation in Bangladesh on the eve of the Presidential visit, interviewing the Prime Minister, Leader of Opposition, Chairman of Grameen Bank, leading business personalities and ordinary citizens. Her most recent work with the CFMT Television in Canada includes news feature on acid violence against women and with The Globe & Mail of Canada, she wrote on “A Muslim View of Christmas (December 23rd, 1999). Ms Zakiuddin holds a Master of Arts in History from the University of Toronto.
MANICH SOOKSOMCHITRA

Mr Manich Sooksomchitra is the Senior Editor of The Thairath Daily, Thailand. He is also the President of Press Council of Thailand and Press Development Institute of Thailand and is the Advisor of the Confederation of Asian Journalist. Mr Sooksomchitra has 2 honorary Phd. in Journalism from Ramkamkaeng University and Thammasat University.
VENKAT NARAYAN

Dr Venkat Narayan is a Syndicated Journalist. He began his career as a staff reporter of The Times of India. He has since written for various newspapers namely, The Sunday Times of London, Boston Globe, India Today and has been the South Asian bureau chief of ITN, London, since 1984. Dr Narayan is also associated with TV networks like NBC (USA), Channel 7 (Australia) and Radio Lotus (South Africa). He authored the book "NTR: A Biography) and received an Honorary Doctorate of Letters in 1998 from Kakatiya University (Andra Pradesh, India). Dr Narayan is currently the president of The Foreign Correspondents’ Club (FCC) of South East Asia. He has traveled to 36 countries across five continents for professional work and has interviewed scores of statesmen like Indira Ghandi, JR Jayewardene, Gen. Ziaul Haq and Robert Mugabe, celebrities, musicians and sportsmen both at home and abroad. Dr Narayan obtained his Bachelor of Journalism form Osmania University in Hyderabad.
Ms Teo Yi-Ling is a lecturer in Communication Law & Ethics at the Centre for Film and Media Studies at Ngee Ann Polytechnic in Singapore. She is also involved with the Advanced Diploma in Film Production offered by the Continuing Education Centre at Ngee Ann Polytechnic, where she is a lecturer in the subject Filmmaking, the Law and Society. Ms Teo graduated with a LL.B (Hon) from the University of Liverpool in the United Kingdom in 1995 and is an Advocate and Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Singapore. She was previously a practicing lawyer and her areas of specialization in legal practice have included intellectual property law, commercial and civil litigation, shipping law and matrimonial law.
IJAZ SHAFI GILANI

Dr Ijaz Shafi Gilani is the chairman of Gallup Pakistan, a leading survey research organization which specializes in opinion and marketing research. He received his doctorate in Political Science from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) in 1977. Dr Gilani served as advisor to the Prime Minister and was chairman of the Prime Minister's Committee for Research and Analysis, an in-house think tank which he set up at the Prime Minister's Secretariat. Dr Gilani has headed a number of research projects in the field of social and economic development, strategic studies and political behavior. He has also published articles on a wide range of subjects and has lectured in various Universities and institutions of higher learning. He has traveled abroad widely for participating in academic conferences and delivering lectures. Dr Gilani is a leading marketing research consultant and is frequently called upon for advice by the public and private sector.
BHAG SINGH

Mr Bhag Singh is an Advocate and Solicitor in the High Court of Malaya. He is actively involved in legal work pertaining to the media industry. He is also a regular writer of weekly legal columns in Newspapers. Mr Singh has a law degree form the University of Singapore.
CHAY HOFILENA

Ms Hofilena is a Lecturer at Ateneo de Manila University teaching New Writing at the Department of Communications. She is also Fellow at the Philippine Center for Social Policy & Public Affairs and has written book chapters on community press, local politics, mining and various investigative reports and conducts training sessions on investigative reporting for journalists. As a Publications Editor/Consultant with the Ateneo Cener for Social Policy & Public Affairs, she wrote, edited, conceptualized and coordinated conferences on socio-economic-political issues that bridged non-government organizations, academe, government and media. She was formerly the Deputy editor of the Manila Times and a Senior Reporter with ABC-5 Television. Ms Hofilena has a Master of Science in Journalism from Columbia University, New York. She has won several awards and the most recent was winning the second place in the '2000 Jaime V. Ongpin Awards for Investigative Journalism' for a series of articles on the Centennial Expo, a story about how government officials used the centennial celebration to raise funds for the political campaign of administration candidates.
Ms Reva Khetrapal is a judiciary and is presently on deputation as Secretary of the Press Council of India. She practiced at the Bar of the Delhi High Court for about 15 years as a corporate lawyer and as a Government lawyer. As a judge, she dealt with matrimonial and criminal cases (including murder, rape, etc), and as a Special Judge she dealt with Narcotics and Psychotropic Substances. She has also dealt with cases related to successions, probate, land acquisition and those under the Eviction of Unauthorized Occupants Act. Ms Khetrapal has a BA (Hon) L.LB.