AMIC CSD WACC Seminar on the Communication Revolution in Asia, New Delhi, Aug 21-23, 1986 . - Singapore : Asian Mass Communication Research & Information Centre, 1986.

lv (various pagings)

The seminar examined the impact of the communication revolution on the countries of Asia, in terms of trade and the economy, education and cultural values, and communication research, policy and planning. It then looked at the implications of this impact and consequently proposed a programme of actions which Asian countries may consider in communication planning and research.
